

Congratulations to Timothy Snyder!

PIASA member and Yale University professor Timothy David Snyder is one of 32 "Andrew Carnegie Fellows 2015" - Extraordinary scholars addressing urgent challenges to U.S. democracy and international order. According to the 4-22-15 announcement by the Carnegie Corporation of New York in a full page ad in the Washington Post: "The $6.4 million fellowship program supports high-caliber scholarship that applies fresh perspectives to some of the most pressing issues of our times. Fellows will receive $200,000 each, which will make it possible for them to devote time to research and writing."

Warm congratulations to Tim!

Susanne Lotarski